The Consumer Communications Bureau with the California Department of Insurance is available to assist customers with claims they feel have been wrongfully denied or rejected. Consumers may call or write the Bureau to have claims reviewed. Callers outside California and those in California (area codes 213 or 310) may contact the Consumer Communications Bureau at 213-897-8921. The number for the rest of California is 1-800-927-HELP. The mailing address is: Consumer Communications Bureau, California Department of Insurance, 300 S. Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90013. The Department's Internet website (www.insurance.ca.gov) has complaint forms and instructions online.

The California Department of Insurance is responsible for regulating health insurance plans. Before you file a complaint with the California Department of Insurance, you should first contact the insurance company in an effort to resolve the issue(s). If you do not receive a satisfactory response, then complete the department's Request for Assistance form. Occasionally, the issue may be of such a nature that attempting to contact the insurance company first may not be appropriate. In these situations, it would be appropriate to contact the Department first.

Practitioners: To enter the dispute resolution process, please call 888-632-3862 or write to P.O. Box 14020, Lexington, KY 40512.

The Consumer Communications Bureau with the California Department of Insurance is available to assist customers with claims they feel have been wrongfully denied or rejected. Consumers may call or write the Bureau to have claims reviewed. Callers outside California and those in California (area codes 213 or 310) may contact the Consumer Communications Bureau at 213-897-8921. The number for the rest of California is 1-800-927-HELP. The mailing address is: Consumer Communications Bureau, California Department of Insurance, 300 S. Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90013. The Department's Internet website (www.insurance.ca.gov) has complaint forms and instructions online.

The California Department of Insurance is responsible for regulating health insurance plans. Before you file a complaint with the California Department of Insurance, you should first contact the insurance company in an effort to resolve the issue(s). If you do not receive a satisfactory response, then complete the department's Request for Assistance form. Occasionally, the issue may be of such a nature that attempting to contact the insurance company first may not be appropriate. In these situations, it would be appropriate to contact the Department first.

Practitioners: To enter the dispute resolution process, please call 888-632-3862 or write to P.O. Box 14020, Lexington, KY 40512.

The Consumer Communications Bureau with the California Department of Insurance is available to assist customers with claims they feel have been wrongfully denied or rejected. Consumers may call or write the Bureau to have claims reviewed. Callers outside California and those in California (area codes 213 or 310) may contact the Consumer Communications Bureau at 213-897-8921. The number for the rest of California is 1-800-927-HELP. The mailing address is: Consumer Communications Bureau, California Department of Insurance, 300 S. Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90013. The Department's Internet website (www.insurance.ca.gov) has complaint forms and instructions online.

The California Department of Insurance is responsible for regulating health insurance plans. Before you file a complaint with the California Department of Insurance, you should first contact the insurance company in an effort to resolve the issue(s). If you do not receive a satisfactory response, then complete the department's Request for Assistance form. Occasionally, the issue may be of such a nature that attempting to contact the insurance company first may not be appropriate. In these situations, it would be appropriate to contact the Department first.

Practitioners: To enter the dispute resolution process, please call 888-632-3862 or write to P.O. Box 14020, Lexington, KY 40512.

How to file an appeal:

To file a provider appeal, you must use the Practitioner and Provider Complaint and Appeal Request form. It should be sent to us in writing with any supporting documentation you wish to provide, such as medical records. You can find this form in the Health Care Professionals section of aetna.com under the Dispute & Appeal Process.

To file an appeal on behalf of your patient for a denial or reduction of services already completed, you should use our Member Complaint and Appeal form. You can find this form in the Health Care Professionals section of aetna.com under the Dispute & Appeal Process. You should clearly say that you are acting for the patient and must include a signed written authorization from them. If you do not have the patient's consent, we won't process the appeal as a member appeal.

Any appeal filed on services not yet provided where pre-authorization was required will always be treated as a member appeal. A patient signature is not required for these types of appeals.

External review:

We have denied a request for the provision of or payment for a health care service or course of treatment. You have the right to act as an authorized representative for your patient and have that decision reviewed by an independent review organization not associated with us by submitting a written request for an external review to the Illinois Department of Insurance at the address listed below:

Once the internal appeal process with us is complete, external review by independent practitioners is available when:

In our judgment, the requested service or supply is not medically necessary or is experimental/investigational, or the appeal contained a denial of a specific test or procedure, a denial of a referral to a specialist, or denial of a hospitalization, health care setting, and level of care or length of stay.

The internal appeal process must be exhausted except in the following circumstances:

- Waiting to complete the internal appeal process would seriously jeopardize the life or health of the covered person, or would jeopardize the covered person's ability to regain maximum function, or
- An internal review has been requested and the covered person has not received a written decision on the appeal within 30 days for a pre-service review request or ongoing care review request, within 60 days for a retrospective review request, within 48 hours for an expedited internal review request (unless the covered person or their representative agreed to the delay), or
- We did not follow the required state or federal appeal laws.

You must request an external review in writing within four months of the final adverse determination. In order to request an external review, you complete the Illinois External Review Request form found at <http://insurance.illinois.gov/ExternalReview/ExternalReviewMain.html> and submit the form and requested documentation to the Illinois Department of Insurance as follows:

Illinois Department of Insurance	1-877-850-4740 (toll-free phone number)
Office of Consumer Health Insurance	1-217-557-8495 (fax)
External Review Unit	doi.externalreview@illinois.gov (email)
320 West Washington Street	https://mc.insurance.Illinois.gov/messagecenter.nsf (web address)
Springfield, Illinois 62767-0001

You can be appointed as your patient's authorized representative by having them complete the Illinois Appointment of Authorized Representative and Consent for Release of Medical Records form found at the above website and submit it to the Illinois Department of Insurance along with the request for external review. You may supply additional information that you would like the reviewer to consider. In addition, you may request copies of documents relevant to your claim (free of charge) by contacting us.

External reviews are conducted by independent physicians with expertise in the medical service or supply at issue. The Illinois Department of Insurance will randomly assign an Independent Review Organization from a list of IROs approved by the Department to review the case. Once a review is complete, we will accept the decision of the external reviewer.

If you believe that a delay in decision making might seriously jeopardize the life or health of your patient, an

If you have any questions about the external review forms or process, please call us or the Illinois Department of Insurance at the above number. Neither you nor your patient will have to pay for the external review. Your request for an external review will not affect your patient's rights to any other benefits under the plan or his or her right to representation.
